Mr. Conte-

I learned Friday that Mr. Fellows is unable to open encrypted discovery we sent to him in December. The jail's IT people and ours are consulting on the problem.

However, would you please put the discovery I provided to you on USAfx onto a disk or thumb drive and deliver it to the DOC Litigation Unit. At least he will have that to review.

Please put Mr. Fellows name and DOC number on the cover letter and address the envelope to him again with the DOC number in care of DOC Litigation Unit, Kymberlee Smith and Ingrid Washington, at the 1901 D. Street address for the jail.

Thank you for your help.

Dear Ms. Furst and Mr. Gillice:

I apologize for the delay in responding to your email. I just finished a trial in the EDVA and preparing for another.

I sent Mr. Fellows a thumb drive with the discovery on March 12. As of yesterday, he has not received it. Therefore, I have copied all the discovery I have received and have forewarned it to him today via Priority Mail.

I have attached screen shots of all the files on that hard drive.
