Once inside the Capitol, BROMLEY stated he went down a long hallway and then turned down another short hallway. At this point BROMLEY saw a large group of people gathered up at a door and heard a gunshot. BROMLEY stated after this he saw a female that had been shot lying on the ground. After seeing this BROMLEY turned around, prayed and left the same way he had entered.

BROMLEY stated he did not take anything from the Capitol nor did he destroy or damage anything inside the Capitol. BROMLEY stated he observed an older white male in a tan or brown hat go to a Capitol Police Officer and attempt to move the officer by putting the officer in a bear hug. BROMLEY said the unidentified male was not successful in moving the officer. This was the only confrontation BROMLEY witnessed inside the Capitol. BROMLEY stated by his recollection he was in the Capitol for eight to ten minutes.

[REDACTED]

After leaving the Capitol, BROMLEY stated he did not re-enter the building at any point. BROMLEY [REDACTED] then began to make their way out of the area.

While exiting the area, BROMLEY stated he rendered medical aid to several individuals who appeared to be injured. One of the individuals BROMLEY stated was a person who had a plastic projectile lodged in his cheek. BROMLEY removed this projectile and rendered aid. BROMLEY stated the individual was named [REDACTED] and he was from Leeds, AL. According to BROMLEY some time later [REDACTED] sent BROMLEY a message thanking him for rendering aid to him. BROMLEY stated he promptly deleted the message as he did not want to have anything to do with [REDACTED].

BROMLEY stated while walking away from the area he again rendered basic first aid to several individuals along the way.

BROMLEY [REDACTED] left Washington D.C. on January 7th and
