You are hereby sentenced to probation for a term of:

THIRTY-SIX (36) MONTHS on Count 5.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)
7. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 2248, 2259, 2264, 2327, 3663, 3663A, and 3664. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: JACK JESSE GRIFFITH a/k/a Juan Bibiano
CASE NUMBER: 21CR204-04 (BAH)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

CASE NUMBER: 21CR204-04 (BAH)

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Special Assessment - The defendant is ordered to pay a special assessment of $10.00 in accordance with 18 USC 3013.

The Court authorizes supervision and jurisdiction of this case to be transferred to the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee.

DEFENDANT: JACK JESSE GRIFFITH a/k/a Juan Bibiano
CASE NUMBER: 21CR204-04 (BAH)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant is ORDERED to make restitution to the Architect of the Capitol in the amount of $500.00. The Court determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest and therefore waives any interest or penalties that may accrue on the balance.

Restitution Obligation - The defendant must pay the balance of any restitution owed at a rate of no less than $25.00 each month.

Financial Payment - The defendant must pay the financial penalty in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of the judgment. He must also notify the Court of any changes in economic circumstances that might affect the ability to pay this financial penalty.

Financial Payment Schedule - Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties is due as follows: Payment in equal monthly installments of $25.00 over a period of 20 months, to commence after the date of this judgment, with payments suspended for the period that defendant is in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

Financial Information Disclosure - The defendant must provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information until the restitution obligation is paid in full. The probation office may share financial information with the United States Attorney's Office.

Financial Restrictions - The defendant must not incur new credit charges, or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

Location Monitoring - The defendant will be monitored by the form of location monitoring technology indicated herein for a period of 90 days, and he must follow the rules and regulations of the location monitoring program. The cost of the program is waived. Location monitoring technology at the discretion of the probation officer, including: Radio Frequency (RF) Monitoring; GPS Monitoring (including hybrid GPS); SmartLINK; or Voice Recognition. This form of location monitoring technology will be used to monitor the following restriction on the defendant's movement in the community: the defendant is restricted to his residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities as pre-approved by the officer (Home Detention).

Computer Search - The defendant must submit his computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. 1030(e)(1)) or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, to a search. He must warn any other people who use these computers or devices capable of accessing the Internet that the devices may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. A probation officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that there is a violation of a condition of supervision and that the computer or device contains evidence of this violation. Any search will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

Computer Monitoring - The defendant must allow the probation officer to install computer monitoring software on any computer (as defined in 18 U.S.C. 1030(e)(1)) he uses. Computer Monitoring/Search - To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, the defendant must allow the probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced searches of any computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. 1030(e)(1)) subject to computer monitoring. These searches shall be conducted to determine whether the computer contains any prohibited data prior to installation of the monitoring software, whether the monitoring software is functioning effectively after its installation, and whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software after its installation. The defendant must warn any other people who use these computers that the computers may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

(Special Conditions continue on the additional Sheet 4D - Probation)

DEFENDANT: JACK JESSE GRIFFITH a/k/a Juan Bibiano

CASE NUMBER: 21CR204-04 (BAH)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Social Media Restriction - The defendant shall not access, view or use any online social media, chat services, blogs, instant messages, SMS, MMS, digital photos, video sharing websites, emails or any other interactive, online or electronic communication applications or sites without the approval of the probation officer.
