11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

12 Plaintiff,

13 vs.

14 VALERIE ELAINE EHRKE,

15 Defendant.

16

17 Criminal Case No. 21-97 (PLF)

18 DEFENSE SENTENCING
19 MEMORANDUM

20 [REDACTED]

21 TO THE HONORABLE PAUL L. FRIEDMAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
22 FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA and to MR. CHANNING D. PHILLIPS, ESQ.,
23 UNITED STATES ATTORNEY, and to MR. KEVIN BIRNEY, ESQ., ASSISTANT
24 UNITED STATES ATTORNEY, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

25 The Defense hereby requests that the Court to follow the recommendation of the United 26 States Attorney articulated on the record at the time of entry of Ms. Ehrke's change of plea, and 27 as set forth on page 17, paragraph 74 of the Presentence Report. It is agreed that the sentencing 28 guidelines do not apply to this misdemeanor case, that the defendant pay restitution to the Department of Treasury in the amount of $500, and complete 40 hours of community service.
Because of the nature of Ms. Ehrke's involvement, the U.S. Attorney also recommends "no jail time."

29 ///

The case at bar is appropriate for such a sentencing order based upon Ms. Ehrke's limited involvement, her record of being an outstanding member of her community, and her remorse in being involved in any way in what has turned out to be a monumental tragedy.

Attached hereto are letters in support of Ms. Ehrke and other documentation showing her unselfish involvement in her community, and her commendable profession in architectural design (all of which were provided to the U.S. Attorney's Office during negotiation).

The first letter in the packet is from Ms. Ehrke. This letter along with the other letters and documents were provided to the Probation Department for use in formulating the presentence report. Ms. Ehrke's letter (which she wrote completely on her own) clarifies the fact that she did not come to Washington for any other reason than to listen to the outgoing President in his final rally. She left early and walked back to her hotel room. While watching television she learned that people were going into the building. She simply walked over and joined them. She entered the building only about ten (10) feet. Ms. Ehrke then smelled pepper spray and was pushed back out. The timing was verified by video subsequent to Ms. Ehrke's entry of plea. She did not enter the building until 1:35 p.m. She estimates that she was in the building only about 20 to 30 seconds. It appears that among those charged in this occurrence, Ms. Ehrke was at least one of the last to enter the building and one of the first to leave – with no other involvement.

The ends of justice are satisfied by the sentence described above, and Ms. Ehrke requests that the Court follow the U.S. Attorney's recommended sentence.

Dated: September 9, 2021

Respectfully submitted,

Robert M. Holley

Valerie Elaine Ehrke

To Whom It May Concern:

I reside in the same town of fewer than 4000 people, that I grew up in. There were about 12 years that I resided elsewhere. I spent 4 ½ years living in San Luis Obispo, California while I attended California Polytechnic University, then several years in Sacramento while working as a project manager/estimator, before I returned to Arbuckle/College City. I raised my almost 23 year old daughter here as a single mother. My daughter [REDACTED] has recently graduated from Oregon State University.

I love the community that I live in and have served on the [REDACTED] Committee for 15 or so years. Our mission is to restore our 19th century train depot, but we also sweep the street on the second Tuesday of the month, have an annual car show and an annual pumpkin festival, among other events. I have served as the committee secretary in the past and am currently a member at large.

[REDACTED] asked me about two years ago if I would be willing to apply to serve on the school bond oversight committee, which is an unpaid volunteer position. I applied and received the position on the committee. We meet quarterly.

I believe the spirit of volunteerism is best served without tooting my own horn, but in an effort to convince the reader of this letter that I am a fine member of society I will also mention that I have taken it upon myself to buy trash bags at my own expense and empty the trash can in the L avalanche H rush community park that is next to the office space I rent on main street, Arbuckle. The park is owned by Arbuckle Parks and Rec department. With the extra 'to-go' containers generated by Covid-19, the once a week emptying by APR is not sufficient and when I noticed the can overflowing, I took the matter into my own hands. I also pick up garbage left behind in the park. I pick up garbage along the street in my own neighborhood as well. In the words of JFK, "if not us, then who?"

I receive frequent requests to do architectural work for community projects and have done several pro bono, including but not limited to, the Arbuckle Little League snack bar and announcers stand, the monument signs at the north and south entrance to the town of Arbuckle, the entrance sign to the town of College City, architectural drawings for a new building at the Colusa County Fairgrounds among others.

Arbuckle doesn't have a stop light in town, nor do we have a single fast food restaurant. I am a small town girl who loves my town, my state and my country. It is because of this love of country that I decided to attend the January 6th, 2020 rally in DC. I had never seen a sitting president or even an ex president speak. The only other time I'd been to DC was to help chaperone my daughter's 8th grade trip to DC a few years ago. I loved that trip. Seeing our country's buildings and monuments filled me with pride.

President Trump had been tweeting invitations to attend the January 6th rally in the weeks preceding the event, but I did not decide to attend until just a few days beforehand. The only plan I had was to go to the White House Ellipse to listen to President Trump's speech. He said during his speech that he would be going to the capitol after he spoke and he asked us to walk there together after his speech. I left his speech early to walk back to my hotel room because I was cold. Once back in my room, I saw on the news that people were at the capitol building. The news commentators said that people were inside the building. Additionally, they said that people were going through the areas of the capitol that were open to the public anyway. Having travelled a long way to attend this rally, I decided to put on an extra layer of clothing and walk to the capitol. On my way there I saw about five men walking together. I decided to walk behind them because I was by myself and it felt safer. I thought they were Proud Boys, based on what I had seen on TV regarding rallies and protests. I asked one of them if they were Proud Boys and he said that no, they were three percenters. I had never heard of them and I did not know if I was insulting him or paying him a compliment. As we got closer to the capitol building, I stopped following that group of men.

Upon my arrival to the capitol building, I walked up to where people were already gathering in front of doors that were already opened. After a very brief wait, a group of us were let into the building. I was only inside the building 10' or so, when we were pushed out of the building. At that time that I could feel something weird in my throat, that I assumed was pepper spray. It was also at that time that it became very clear to me that we were not wanted there and that is when I departed. There were several capitol police along the side of the building when I was leaving. They were not asking anyone to leave, but because of the pepper spray and being pushed out of the building I concluded that I should leave.

At no time in the process of making plans to attend the rally, or during my attendance at the rally and capitol building, did I ever think that I was breaking the law. I am not a law breaker. When I was younger, I got into some trouble and was convicted of selling marijuana. After my 46 days in jail were served, I swore to myself that I would never ever do anything to get myself in trouble with the law. This situation really blindsided me because I never had intent to harm or obstruct what was happening inside the capitol building. I was not aware of the madness that was happening in senate chambers. I do not condone that behavior and I am deeply sorry that people lost their lives on that day.

I invite the reader of this letter to come to my hometown of Arbuckle and ask anyone in town about me. 95% of the people that know me will say they like me, but I believe in my heart that of the maybe 5% that may not be fond of me, even they will say I am an honest and good person who is an asset to the community.

After reviewing this letter and the many character reference letters that I have collected, I pray you will conclude that the charges against me should be dropped. Please allow me to continue my volunteer work as well as my regular work where I contribute positively to our society.

Sincerely,

Valerie Elaine Ehrke

To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing today regarding Valerie Elaine Eherke

I have known Valerie for most of my life in a personal and professional perspective.

Valerie is one of the most upstanding and reliable people I have ever known. When I was young, our families would travel together and my parents entrusted her to take care of me, even allowing me to travel alone with her to meet our families. She has been a trusted friend, a great sounding board and a valued advisor.

Professionally I have worked with Valerie in different capacities for years. She is reliable, trustworthy and a dedicated to her craft. She is sought after in her professional capacity due to her dedication, creativity, good communications skills, problem solving and is a true visionary. She is a creative soul with a good business sense.

Personally I have known her to be a valued member of community organizations, always willing to jump in and take the lead in local organization and lend her professional know how to community projects. She is an amazing mother who was devoted to her daughter's education and always put her first, which is never easy especially being a single mom. When faced with obstacles in her life it is always amazing to see her ability to use self reflection and dedication to become a stronger and better human, which we all could and should do more of.

Valerie is a kind and generous person who is a pillar in the community, a valued friend and a single mom who has raised a smart and thoughtful daughter.

Sincerely yours,

To Whom it May Concern:

I write on behalf of Valerie (Val) Ehrke, resident of Arbuckle, California. Val is a life-long friend, and our personal relationship spans the past twenty years. My earliest memories of Val date to the year 2000. Val guided me in the poultry portion of the Colusa County [REDACTED] and small animal [REDACTED] where her help and direction aided in my [REDACTED]. Val supported me through academic pursuits when I attended college for my undergraduate degrees. As a fellow [REDACTED] graduate Val offered insight into my academic pursuits and struggles with her stories of grit and determination, which served as beacons, aiding in my ability to complete my bachelor's of science degrees from [REDACTED]. As an adult Val and I visited each time I returned to Arbuckle during my husband's [REDACTED]. Val offered support during my husband's absence, ensuring me of his safety and the importance of my husband's [REDACTED]. The years of support, guidance, and encouragement Val provided are priceless. I am honored Val is my friend.

I write on behalf of Val to aid in depicting the person she is. Val acknowledges all she does and all she is, and I respect her highly because of it. Regarding the events in this case, I am proud of Val for exercising her rights to protest as a US citizen and standing up for her beliefs and the beliefs of the people in her hometown in rural, northern California. Val is far from violent, and any violence in those events at the capital I am certain were not initiated by Val. Val does not condone violence against humans, whether they are civilians, law enforcement, or military personnel. Val is a caring person who values peace and love, as is evident in her community support, law enforcement support, military support, and civilian care; these values are further exemplified in Val's reserved, quiet, rural lifestyle. Val is true to who she is as a person, and she is true to her community. She designed a community park and children's baseball facilities in which several community events were held prior to the restrictions set forth during the COVID-19 pandemic. Val's patriotism is directly visible in her support of the US military, which I experienced through our conversations about [REDACTED] and his work as a [REDACTED]. Val's support for law enforcement is directly visible through her actions with the recent, devastating loss of Officer [REDACTED]. Val's support and admiration for the United States as a nation, and the government entities within it, are exemplified through her support and encouragement with my work at the [REDACTED] and as a military [REDACTED]. Val was proud of my work and proud of my husband for his call to serve his country and our willingness to sacrifice for the betterment of the United States and all who live here. Val's caring, loving nature shone on me again in our most recent conversation. Val listened and offered support when I shared with her the pain and anxiety I experienced through the recent separation from my husband. Val's ability to listen, express support, and inspire confidence are unmatched. I am grateful Val was present, and will continue to be present, throughout my life. Val's genuine light and all that she shares with and gives to others is unmatched. Val is an asset to the community.

I appreciate the opportunity to share a small, yet hopefully telling, bit of information about Val and her character. Should you wish to contact me regarding any of this information, please do not hesitate to do so. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

March 25th, 2021

To Whom it May Concern:

I have known Valerie Ehrke as Val since the late 1970s, and she is truly one of the most caring, respectful, and genuine people I know. Val and I met at [REDACTED] I knew from the moment I met Val that she would be a life-long friend. Since she was a child Val has been strong, independent, and respectful to everyone around her. Val never judged another person, and she continues to be accepting and non-judgmental to this day. Val would drop anything to help a friend in need. She is that kind of person. I believe in and value Val's character.

Val went to college for architectural engineering at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo. When she graduated from Cal Poly, Val returned to her hometown to start her own business and share her talents with her community. As an independent, woman-owned business in a male-dominated field, I am proud of Val for persevering in her education and career. Val supports her community through her business, and her community supports her. As an independent, single, working mom Val raised her daughter to be a kind, respectful, caring, accepting person who can persevere under different circumstances. With all her success, Val continues to be her genuine self. She always promotes her community, respects and values others, treats others with respect and kindness, and finds the good in all people and situations. She is one of the most humble people I know, and she appreciates everyone and everything in her life.

In the early 2010s Val and I were chaperones together on a student trip to Washington, D.C. I watched first-hand as Val was in awe of the monuments, history, and institutions of the United States of America. Her pride in our country, enthusiasm, and passion were contagious. Val shared these with her own daughter and the other kids she cared for on the trip. When we paid our respects to the fallen heroes at Arlington National Cemetery, I saw Val moved to tears of appreciation for their sacrifice and pride in our great nation. Val's love for our country was evident throughout the trip just as it is today. We still talk about how that trip forever changed our lives as proud Americans.

I would like to note that Val is a hard-working, driven, compassionate, and caring person. I have always considered her to be a good role model for my children. Val exemplifies independence, humility, kindness, and respect without judgement. Val is living the American dream, and she is proud to be an American. She has raised a wonderful child, has a successful business, and lives her life with integrity as a kind, caring, community-focused person. Val inspires me, and our interactions leave me feeling uplifted and confident. I am blessed to have Val as my life-long friend. Thank you for taking the time to read my character statement about Val Ehrke.

To Whom It May Concern:

[REDACTED] Valerie Ehrke is an important and influential member of our family. She is a loving [REDACTED] to my three children ages [REDACTED]. Valerie has a unique relationship with each of my children. She is instrumental in helping me with carpooling, helping my children with their dirt bikes, and she tutors my high school son with his math assignments and preparing for exams. My children value their relationship with [REDACTED] Valerie and she is always available to support their goals and provide guidance in their decisions. She has been actively involved in my children's lives since birth. Valerie supports their endeavors in sports, academics, and community involvement. She encourages them to make positive and productive decisions in order to live their best life.

Valerie, my brother [REDACTED] and I live within a [REDACTED] radius of one another and our retired parents. She is integral in helping my brother and I take care of and entertain our aging parents. Without her assistance, I would struggle to balance my own job and family, along with supporting our retired parents. Each one of us wants to be available to our parents as needed for appointments and other their other needs. It is important to have her support, as I balance all of the aspects of my busy life as a mom, wife, and owner of [REDACTED]

Valerie is an adventurous, passionate, and kind person who believes in God, family, and her country. She would never knowingly cause harm to anyone or anything or break the law. She is a law-abiding citizen that actively volunteers in our community through the Arbuckle [REDACTED] Valerie has been a member of the [REDACTED] board for many years with the goal of making our town a better place for every citizen. She provides countless hours each year of volunteer time working on the [REDACTED] board. The members of our small town community value her contributions to the various projects and initiatives to create a more connected community. Valerie has established a thriving design company in our community and works with her clients to develop their commercial and residential projects. Her ability to communicate with others and her caring approach to assist her clients with their design projects provides a significant value to our community.

Valerie may have been gullible to enter the capitol building, but she truly did not believe she was breaking the law. She has suffered great anguish since the event, realizing that what actually took place was not what she intended on participating in. She is feeling very heartbroken that she was unknowingly involved in such a travesty. Valerie is deeply sad and sorry for her part in the situation and understands the poor decision. She would certainly not make the same decision in the future.

If I can be of further assistance, please contact me at [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern,

It is my pleasure to write this letter on behalf of Valerie Ehrke. I was introduced to Valerie 20 years ago through my profession. The person I know her to be is a loyal friend who is generous, soft-hearted, and hard-working. She has a successful architectural business with many highly-respected clients. In addition to her business, she is a very talented artist. Valerie is a single mother of a daughter who recently graduated from Oregon State University and is now on her own career path.

From my perspective, Valerie is a genuinely good person with strong character. My hope is that you find this information helpful and informative as it relates to the type of person Valerie Ehrke really is.

Sincerely,

RE: Valerie Jean Ehrke

To whom it may concern,

We have known Valerie for 15+ years. We moved to Arbuckle 20 years ago and found early on what wonderful, supportive, community it is.

We both are small business owners. [REDACTED] is a general contractor and Jane is the broker/owner of a [REDACTED] Both businesses are based in [REDACTED] as well.

Valerie, has always been, and we believe, will continue to be involved in the community. This is her home, where she was born and raised. After she graduated from college she came back to Arbuckle to start her, very successful, drafting and design business. She has spent years volunteering for the [REDACTED] Committee and always a phone call away if a helping hand is needed for a local project or event.

[REDACTED] always refers his clients to her for their blueprint needs. [REDACTED] has personally helped facilitate her first successful real estate purchase just last year.

We know her well, and can unequivocally state, we hold her in high regards as a person and a dear friend.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern:

This is a character reference letter for Valerie Elaine Ehrke. I've worked with Mis Ehrke as a professional design specialist for over 7 years. I'm currently working as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] with 20 plus experience. I've have worked with Valerie on many projects. I've always found her to be professional, honest and of good moral character even under the most frustrating and difficult situations. I've found her to be focused, follow all local codes, laws and ordinances while working in the northern California area.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

It has been a pleasure to rent an office space in my building to Valeric Ehrke for the last 13 years. Ms. Ehrke is an honest, hard-working small business owner in our Arbuckle, California community. She is a wonderful tenant, very easy to communicate with and diligent in paying her rent on time each month. Ms. Ehrke has established a thriving design company in our community Valeric Ehrke Designs and works with clients on many architectural projects in our county and beyond. She is a skilled designer and go to person for complex designs for commercial and residential construction. Ms. Ehrke is a valued member of our community.

Ms. Ehrke and I have worked together for many years as volunteers for the [REDACTED] Committee [REDACTED]. She has served as a board member for over twelve years for [REDACTED]. Ms. Ehrke volunteered as the secretary of our committee for four years. This is a vital position on our board, as the duty of the secretary encompasses many facets such as accurate accounting of our board meeting minutes, communication with the community for [REDACTED] projects, and detailed documentation of [REDACTED] business. She handled the demands of the position with ease and provided evidence of the various projects that [REDACTED] established to create a stronger connection for the citizens of Arbuckle with their community.

As a member of [REDACTED] Ms. Ehrke has worked tirelessly on many special projects that [REDACTED] offers the community. Each month, she volunteers with others to "sweep the streets" of Arbuckle to clean up neglected areas of town. The volunteers target an area of town to clean up in order to meet the [REDACTED] goal of beautification of our town. Whether it is a cold, windy day or a day of one hundred degree temperatures, Ms. Ehrke is working alongside her fellow volunteers to create and maintain a cleaner and more beautiful town.

Over the years, Arbuckle as has been the target of unfortunate graffiti on many buildings and public areas. Ms. Ehrke has been integral in working with [REDACTED] to cover up the graffiti and restore the affected buildings and areas to their original condition. Our community is a better place due to her hard work to eliminate graffiti.

During our annual fundraisers, Ms. Ehrke serves as a lead committee member at our car show and pumpkin festival in October and our caritas cook off in May. [REDACTED] goal is to restore our town depot to create a community center and museum for the citizens of Arbuckle. All of the proceeds from our events will make this goal attainable. She has the great responsibility of handling the money at these various events. Ms. Ehrke is a trustworthy and honest person and works at each event with the highest integrity.

If I can be of further assistance, please contact me at [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in reference to Valerie Ehrke, who is appearing before your court in the month of March 2021.

Valerie asked me to write a character reference letter, but the truth is that I was already planning on doing so before the request. I feel strongly about Valerie and her future, and I want to try to make you feel the same way.

I have known Valerie since 2009 as a member of the board of directors for a local non-profit. Valerie is a person of good character despite her current circumstances. During the time I have known and worked with Valerie, I have been impressed with her strength of character, her knowledge and her kindness and willingness to do work within her community. She is a life long resident of Arbuckle and conducts a professional business here as well. She is highly respected for her incredible talent as an Architect.

As President of the [REDACTED] Committee, I am tasked with a multitude of projects within the community surrounded safety, sanitation, growth, etc... Valerie has never hesitated to assist me with projects at hand. She has continually done pro-bono work to save our non-profit money. She is truly committed to our community and helping others. We would absolutely be lost without her.

I know that Valerie is extremely remorseful and wishes to make reparations for her actions. I ask and sincerely encourage you to give her an opportunity to move forward and continue her good works for our community by giving her a second chance. I truly believe, as does our entire committee, as well as so many in our community that she is an honorable individual, and a valuable member to our town and a good human being. I appreciate your time & consideration.

To Whom It May Concern,

It is with much thought and consideration that I write this letter of reference for Valerie Elaine Ehrke. Our lives have been intertwined since before we were born as our mothers were best friends. I have known Val in so many capacities, a school classmate, a teammate, a fellow Cal Poly Mustang, an architect, a community member, a committee member, a mom, and most importantly one of my dearest and closest friends.

From grammar school through high school Val set herself apart academically, socially and athletically. She was the nucleus of every team we were a part of, she was whip smart in the classroom, participated in many clubs and was very well liked by her peers and her teachers. We both attended and graduated from Cal Poly in the late 1980's. Val was one of just a few women in Construction Management. She has gone on to have a very successful career, and she designed our home in 2002. Val is very well respected in her profession and has built a very successful business.

In our small town of Arbuckle, Val has been very active in the [REDACTED] Committee. I have worked very closely with [REDACTED] as I am [REDACTED] the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] We have worked side by side in our parks, community events such as the car show, or the town's carnitas cook off. Val has been a leader, a diligent worker, and a great communicator. I have also been a part of the [REDACTED] serving with Val for over two years. This committee is tasked with overseeing the rebuilding of many school facilities, including the gymnasium, the Pierce High School multipurpose room, and the new weight room. Val's expertise in structures and building have been extremely valuable for the committee. Her attention to detail has found errors in plans and streamlined some of the building processes.

Ironically, Val and became moms just about the same time. Val's daughter [REDACTED] and my daughter [REDACTED] were also classmates at [REDACTED] and friends. [REDACTED] was always supported by her mom, and Val raised her as a single mom. [REDACTED] has gone on to graduate from Oregon State University.

As a friend, Val has always been my sounding board and confidant. She has buoyed me over the years, through life and death, and her steadfastness has given me more comfort than I could ever describe.

If you have any questions whatsoever, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern:

RE: Valerie Ehrke

We both have known Valerie Ehrke for over 40 years as a good friend, mother, businesswoman and community member. We were both surprised to hear about her recent case as she has always been a great citizen of Arbuckle. It is for this reason that we are happy to write a letter of reference for Valerie. We understand the seriousness of this matter but want the court to know what a great person she is.

Valerie Ehrke has graduated from Cal Poly with a BS in Construction management. She has raised a beautiful daughter as a single mother. She has paid for her to go to school at Oregon State where she has received a BS in bio resource research. Valerie owns her own drafting company in Arbuckle, where she has worked for 18 years. During that time, she has given back to the community by donating countless hours to the [redacted] Committee. Not only serving on their board for 15 years, but also helped raise money & donated work. Valerie is truly a strong member of the community.

In addition to our friendship, she is such a great upstanding member of the agriculture community. While it is unfortunate that she has made a bad decision, thus resulting in this case. While we were surprised to hear of what happened, it comes as no surprise that she is ready to accept responsibly for her actions. I believe that as we move forward, she will have learned from this experience and help others through this unfortunate mistake.

It is our sincere hope the court take this letter into consideration at the time of her next hearing. Despite this current case, we believe that Valerie Ehrke to be an honorable, intelligent and a hugely valuable member of the Arbuckle community, along with being a great human being.

Sincerely –

It has been my distinct pleasure to have met Ms. Valerie Ehrke some fifteen years ago. After moving my family here from Upper Michigan and knowing only two people in the entire state, I cannot state strongly enough that meeting her was one of the most important and beneficial interactions I could ever have had. We met on a professional level, strangers - and yet it was Ms. Ehrke's positivity, grace, and ability, which allowed my fledgling business (licenced general contractor) to flourish. She has been a constant source of support and wisdom. I can, unequivocally and with much pride say, we are no longer just colleagues, and definitely not strangers, ...we are friends, with many years of collaboration and respect between us.

Ms. Ehrke is a huge part of our society. She's drawn many of the housing projects in our county, she helps families realize the dream of home ownership. She was born a neighbor to many, but has become a friend to many, many more due to her exuberance for life and generosity. In essence, Ms. Ehrke is a positive and necessary fixture in our Northern neighborhoods!

I am writing this on Ms. Ehrke's behalf because I truly believe in her character. She is family and community strong. As a whole, I can say this community would not have reached the successes and growth it has without her, we need her. Further-more, I will attest that Ms. Ehrke is kind not malicious, she is passionate in her endeavors, and to put it simply, a rarity. She is a good person! I truly hope "you" see that too.

Sincerely,

Re: Valerie Elaine Ehrke

To Whom It May Concern:

I first met Valerie in 1994 when she was hired as a C.A.D. (Computer Aided Drawing) technician. While we worked for the same company I was impressed with her ability to perform her job duties in a timely manner and with integrity.

Valerie is currently an Owner/Operator of her own successful business. She is also a single mother raising a child whom has now graduated college. Valerie's contributions, along with donated work and time to the community, are additionally impressive and flattering to the type of person she is.

I genuinely believe Valerie is a person whom possesses attributes of integrity, perseverance, compassion for others and desire to do the right thing.

In closing and without hesitation I confidently submit this letter to vouch for the superior character of Valerie Elaine Ehrke!

To Whom It May Concern,

First of all, my cordial greeting. I am here at this moment writing to you in reference to Valerie Elaine Ehrke, who is before the court because of being charged with Trespassing in a Federal Building.

Valerie asked me to write a reference letter, but the truth is that I was already planning on doing so before asking me. I sincerely feel very concerned about the wellbeing and future of Valerie, and my intention is to try to make you understand my point of view and that of many people who love her.

Valerie is a good person and has always had morality in her actions. She is hard-working, civic minded and leads by example in her work and daily life. I have known Valerie over 20 years and I have seen her only grow through her business, friendships and family.

I have been a business owner for 35+ years and truly admire Valerie's gifts to whom she works with. We have all made mistakes we wish we could have changed, but I believe Valerie would never intentionally make a choice to do harm to anybody or anything. I believe this to be a lesson learned with much grief.

Thank you for taking your time to read this heart-felt letter.

Sincerely,

RE: Ms. Valerie Ehrke

To Whom It May Concern:

I have been a rural community building contractor for 27 years and I have known Valerie Ehrke as a friend and a business associate for 15 of these years. The recent events taking place in our country are sombering and I found it deeply concerning to hear of Valerie's potential participation in the events. This is why I have found it extremely important that I write a letter of character for Ms. Ehrke. I understand the seriousness of this matter and hope my letter will provide you some insight to the person and business woman I know.

Ms. Ehrke is a thriving business woman in small town America. She owns [REDACTED] California. She is professional and intelligent. No matter the project size Valerie is ready to handle the job with ease and confidence. She has a large clientele and works diligently to complete jobs in a timely manner.

In addition to our business partnership, Valerie has been my friend. She is family and community centered. She has donated both time and money to various community organizations. Valerie is caring and will do anything in her power to help her community and her friends and family. These are valued traits in small town America.

It is with great confidence that I put forth this letter. Valerie is an integral part of our community as well as my personal business. I am a very good judge of character and I can say that Valerie would not intentionally do harm to any person or her country.

Sincerely,

RE: Character Reference for Valerie Ehrke

The aim of this letter is to present the good character of Valerie. We have known each other since childhood (late 1960's) and attended school together thru High School. Same sporting teams & clubs.

I have hired Valerie for a few different architectural jobs over these last few years for our businesses... [REDACTED] & [REDACTED]. I can confirm that she is careful, considerate, and efficient. She has always shown professionalism & accuracy as well as attention to detail for our projects.

She is well-regarded among our community, a person of high integrity and honesty. We have been together in situations, and she has always conducted herself with common sense and compassion. Valerie has been a huge part in the clean-up of Downtown Arbuckle. She volunteers her time and sweat equity to help make the community a little bit nicer.

She runs a very professional [REDACTED] and is in high demand as she is very knowledgeable & talented in her field.

I am aware of her charges.. However, I wish to express that this unfortunate situation was most probably one-of-a-kind.

I hope this letter will give you an idea of her good character and help her get a second chance to prove this was an unusual occurrence.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Sincerely,
