CASE NUMBER: 21-cr-00719-2

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.

4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.

You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

5. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.

7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

3. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.

9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.

- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

While on supervision, you shall abide by the following mandatory conditions, as well as all discretionary conditions recommended by the probation office in Part D. Sentencing Options of the presentence report, which are imposed to establish the basic expectations for your conduct while on supervision.

The mandatory conditions include:

- 1. You must not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
- 2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
- 3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on supervision and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
- 4. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 USC §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution.

You shall comply with the following special conditions:

Firearm Restriction - You shall remove firearms, destructive devices, or other dangerous weapons from areas over which you have access or control until the term of supervision expires.

You are ordered to make restitution to in the amount $500 to the Architect of the Capitol. The court determined you do not have the ability to pay interest and therefore waives any interest or penalties that may accrue on the balance. Restitution Obligation – You must pay the balance of any restitution owed at a rate of no less than $100 each month upon release.

Restitution payments shall be made to the Clerk of the Court for the United States District Court, District of Columbia, for disbursement to the following victim:

Architect of the Capitol
Office of the Chief Financial Officer
Ford House Office Building,
Room H2-205B
Washington, DC 20515

Re-entry Progress Hearing - Within sixty days of release from incarceration or placement on supervision, you will appear before the Court for a re-entry progress hearing. Prior to the hearing, the probation officer will submit a report summarizing your status and compliance with release conditions. If you are supervised by a district outside of the Washington DC metropolitan area, the United States Probation Office in that district will submit a progress report to the court within 60 days of the commencement of supervision; upon receipt of the progress report, the Court will determine if your appearance is required.
